I think that I should just throw in the towel for today.
 Called you "Bread," can't get the dates right, and on.

Yes, the new due date is Jan 20, 2019!

Carolyn

Just to clarify, the new due date is actually January 20, 2019 and not January 20, 2018, correct?

Sincerely,

Hi Joe,

Per our call yesterday, an incorrect date was provided for the due date for the attached work plan to further define the GW plume at Amphenol. The due date should have read Jan 20, 2018 rather than Dec 20, 2018.

Please let me know if you prefer this notification formally, in a letter.

Thanks.

Carolyn
